A copy of such determination of population shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State, and thereupon shall be the official census of the city for the purposes of said sections.

CHAPTER 746

An act to amend Sections 375, 375.5, 376, 378 and 379 of, and to add Section 380 to the Fish and Game Code, relating to Federal acquisition of lands.

In effect
September
15, 1945

[Approved by Governor June 8, 1945. Filed with Secretary of State June 8, 1945.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 375 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

Acceptance of Federal act

375. The people of the State of California, through their legislative authority, accept the provisions and benefits of the act of Congress known as the "Migratory Bird Conservation Act," approved February 18, 1929. With the approval of the Fish and Game Commission of the State of California and the legislative body of each county, city, or city and county within which any part of the land is situate first had and obtained, they consent to the acquisition by the United States by purchase, lease, gift or devise, of such areas of land, water, or land and water, within the State of California, as the United States or its properly constituted officers or agents may deem necessary for migratory bird reservations in carrying out the provisions of said act of Congress.

SEC. 2. Section 375.5 of said code is amended to read:

375.5. The Legislature and the State reserve jurisdiction on and over the property acquired by the United States under the provisions of Section 375, the State's entire power of taxation including that of each State agency, county, city, city and county, political subdivision or public district of or in the State which may be imposed under the laws or authority of this State as soon as title thereto is acquired.

SEC. 3. Section 376 of said code is amended to read:

376. This State reserves such full and complete jurisdiction and authority for the execution of civil process and criminal process over all such Federal migratory bird reservations and all persons within such reservations as are not incompatible with the administration, maintenance, protection and control thereof by the United States under the terms of said act of Congress.

SEC. 4. Section 378 of said code is amended to read:

378. This consent continues only so long as the property continues to belong to the United States and is held by it in accordance and in compliance with each and all of the conditions and reservations as prescribed in this chapter, and used for the purposes for which it was acquired.

SEC. 5. Section 379 of said code is amended to read:

379. With the approval of the Fish and Game Commission of the State of California first had and obtained, the people of the State of California, through their legislative authority, also consent to the declaration, withdrawal or determination of any part of any National forest or power site, and do further consent to the condemnation of any lands lying and being below an elevation known and described as minus 230 foot elevation below sea level, as a migratory bird reservation under the provisions of said act of Congress.

SEC. 6. Section 380 is added to said code, to read:

380. The president of the Fish and Game Commission may be a member ex officio of the Migratory Bird Conservation Commission created by said act of Congress.
